Dear Church Family,

Thoughts from Pastor Michael

National Custodian Day is Oct. 2. Jill does such a wonderful job! Show your appreciation to her and also her son, Austin who helps her. We appreciate you so very much!

On October 26th, during our morning Worship service, we will be ordaining Ryan as a pastor in our church. I am looking forward to that special time in his life as we officially set him apart for the ministry of being a Pastor. I hope you can be there that Sunday.

As I was thinking about ordaining Ryan, I thought that I would remind all of us that we have been ordained or set apart to live consecrated, holy lives before the Lord. We are all special and have a DIVINE ASSIGNMENT! According to Romans 12.1-2, we are called to present our lives to God as living sacrifices, serving God and being transformed into His image. What a special calling we have to God! We are to be as Holy as He is holy! (1 Peter 1.15-16)

As I said a couple of weeks ago, we live in an AGE OF OUTRAGE! It is a great challenge to live holy lives in an unholy world. However, God OUTMATCHES the challenge by giving us the resources of His holy life within us. Romans 12.9-21 gives us a blueprint as to what a holy life looks like in our world.

9 Let love be without hypocrisy. Detest evil; cling to what is good. 10 Love one another deeply as brothers and sisters. Take the lead in honoring one another. 11 Do not lack diligence in zeal; be fervent in the Spirit; serve the Lord. 12 Rejoice in hope; be patient in affliction; be persistent in prayer. 13 Share with the saints in their needs; pursue hospitality. 14 Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse. 15 Rejoice with those who rejoice; weep with those who weep. 16 Live in harmony with one another. Do not be proud; instead, associate with the humble. Do not be wise in your own estimation. 17 Do not repay anyone evil for evil. Give careful thought to do what is honorable in everyone's eyes. 18 If possible, as far as it depends on you, live at peace with everyone. 19 Friends, do not avenge yourselves; instead, leave room for God's wrath, because it is written, Vengeance belongs to me; I will repay, says the Lord. 20 But If your enemy is hungry, feed him. If he is thirsty, give him something to drink. For in so doing you will be heaping fiery coals on his head. 21 Do not be conquered by evil, but conquer evil with good.

Lord, help us to live as you lived!
Thank you for letting me be your Pastor!

Civilizations rise and fall on the foundation of truth. Truth Rising is a powerful new documentary that explores what happens when that foundation crumbles. Presented by Focus on the Family and the Colson Center, this film is a timely call to action. There are two opportunities to watch at FBCF. You can choose a date. You don't need to be at both. October 5th 6:00-8:00 God's Playhouse or Wednesday, October 8th TBD.

TERRY'S NOTES

Happy October to everyone! Hopefully, when you are reading this, we are experiencing something close to fall-like weather. Normally, by the Peanut Festival weekend, we have something close to fall-like weather. Along with the cooler temperatures, we are praying for nice fall rain. I am pretty certain, like me, during your prayer times, you are asking the Lord to bring rain our way. If you are not praying for rain, please do include this very important request to your prayer time.

Health Update: I just kind of want to give you heads up on my health and the good things that are going on with it.

After being diagnosed with AFib a few years ago, my cardiologist recommended that I have an ablation procedure. On Jan. 30, 2023, I had an ablation procedure done, and I have not had any more issues. Of course, I am taking a few prescription meds to help with all of this, and hopefully, my Dr. will consider taking me off of them one day.

By including in my daily routine adequate exercise and a healthier diet, I am hoping that my heart health will have changed immensely. One thing for sure, I am feeling much, much better, and it so nice to be able to wear smaller size clothes again. (I have lost about 65 pounds in the last 2 years, and I have about 40 more to go.) Hey.....thats why I am wearing a suit and tie again on Sundays! I can actually fasten my top shirt button for my tie! To reward myself, Sandra and I go shopping at Texas Thrift Store and Goodwill stores to look for suit jackets and ties. I am so excited...I am starting to have a nice inventory of sport coats and ties which I try to show off on Sundays! LOL!!!!

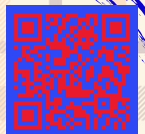

All in all.....I know that the Lord wants me to take better care of myself. God's Word says that our physical bodies are the temple of God. 1 Corinthians 6:19-20 says: "Do you know that your bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own; you were bought at a price. Therefore honor God with your bodies."

When You Come to a Fork in the Road

Hall of Fame catcher Yogi Berra was as famous for his “Yogi-isms” as he was for his baseball career. One of his most quoted lines was: “When you come to a fork in the road, take it.” Though humorous, it reminds us that life is filled with decisions—moments that shape the direction of our future.

Psalm 1 speaks directly to those crossroads. It tells us that the blessed person—the one who knows the deep joy, peace, and fulfillment of God—is marked not only by what they pursue, but also by what they avoid. They do not walk in the counsel of the wicked, linger on the path of sinners, or grow comfortable in the company of mockers. Instead, they delight in the Word of God and meditate on it day and night.

This delight is not casual or occasional; it is rooted, steady, and life-giving. The psalmist compares it to a tree planted by streams of water—nourished, fruitful, and enduring through every season. Such a life prospers, not necessarily in material wealth, but in the deeper prosperity of the soul: stability, fruitfulness, and God’s favor.

The psalm also gives us the sobering contrast. Those who disregard God are like chaff—dry husks that the wind blows away. Without roots, they cannot endure the storm. Without substance, they cannot stand in God’s judgment. In the end, two roads remain: one watched over by the Lord and leading to life, the other ending in destruction.

Early Christian writers saw in Psalm 1 a portrait of Christ Himself—the only One who perfectly lived this righteous life. Jesus is the Blessed Man, the One who resisted sin, delighted in the Father’s Word, and now calls us to follow Him. When we choose His road, we find not only blessings in this life but also eternal life with Him.

So, when you come to a fork in the road, remember: only two paths lie before us. One leads to emptiness, the other to everlasting joy. Choose wisely. Choose Christ.

A word from the Deacon Chair
Matthew 6:33, Seek first God's kingdom and what God wants. Then all your other needs will be met as well. Lana and I were at Rockport just kind of taking it easy. I ask God this that morning. What is your will for me today? Who do you want me to meet? Well we went to a restaurant and it was full so the next day we went to the restaurant drove by and it looked like it was pretty open. We met this guy and we talked with him and we start. I started talking about Jesus and that he's the one that's in control of my life. He's the one that makes my life fantastic I asked him if he had Jesus in his life. We really got in a good talk. Then later, he told me yes I do believe I just been having a hard time believing that he can forgive me so we spent some time talking about that. It is good to go to God and seek at his kingdom seek at his will man. I hope y'all have a great great day. Bless yall, Al Riley.

BUILDING AND GROUNDS WORKDAY

Church Family,

We had another successful workday on September 13th, with 22 people showing up to serve. Together we accomplished much—new playground borders were installed to widen the play area, fencing at the Family Life Center was repaired, trees were trimmed, and many areas across the grounds were cleaned and improved.

While the purpose of these workdays is to maintain our facilities, they also serve as a chance for us to grow closer as a church family. Proverbs 27:17 (CSB) says, "Iron sharpens iron, and one person sharpens another." As we serve side by side, our conversations, laughter, and teamwork strengthen our friendships and deepen the bonds we share in Christ, turning a day of work into a true blessing of joy and growth.

We are truly grateful for everyone who gave of their time and effort. Your willingness to pitch in made a visible difference, and the joy of serving together was just as impactful as the work itself. We encourage even more to join in next time. Many hands make light work, and there is always a place for your talents. If you are unsure of how you can help or hesitant to attend a workday, please reach out to anyone on the Buildings and Grounds Committee and we'll find a role that fits you.

We plan to have one more workday before the end of the year and will announce the date soon. Thank you again for investing in the care of our church and the fellowship of our community.

With gratitude,

Matt Haston & The Buildings and Grounds Committee
